Struggle re-enactment in court

Two defence lawyers and a crown attorney re-enacted a struggle Friday in a Brampton court room to demonstrate how real estate agent Wendy Carroll may have been stabbed. John Lyman Kehoe, 50, and Edward Samuel Schwartz, 60, are on trial in Ontario Court, general division on charges of attempted murder, choking, aggravated assault, robbery and possession of a dangerous weapon in connection with a July 2, 1996 attack on Carroll.

Student returns to portable

Mississauga student Lauren Bot returns today to her portable classroom at All Saints Separate School. Maureen and Dom Bot removed their daughter from the school for several days in October because they believed her allergies were affected by mould in her portable. After the Bots went public, the portable was checked and potentially harmful stachybotrys atra was found and removed.

Probe into death continues

Police are investigating the death of a man found in the Credit River. The body of Anthony Fallis, 32, was pulled Saturday from the river north of Eglinton Ave. W. An autopsy will be completed today.

Peel's garbage dump safe

The air is safe around Peel's garbage dump, officials say. Levels of vinyl chloride surrounding the Britannia Landfill Site on Second Line W. in Mississauga are well below provincial guidelines, Councillor David Culham.
